

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. Since the "Fairness Rules" have been abandoned, irresponsible broadcasters can abuse their licenses as well as the public trust. Sinclair Broadcasting should be forced to give equal time to the Democratic party. And if they fail to do so, their license should be taken away from them. Thank you for considering my comment.